

The use of plastics in different applications in Europe saves the equivalent of 22 million tonnes of crude oil and reduces CO₂ greenhouse gas emissions by 97 million tonnes per year.

This corresponds to a third of the Kyoto reduction target for the EU-15 countries.