

We invest in sustainable development and renewable energy

We finance investment in the sustainable development of Europe and its partner countries. As the European Union's bank, we particularly support the EU's climate change policy and finance projects reducing greenhouse gas emissions including renewable energy schemes. For more information visit our website www.eib.org

One strong Europe

